The sale of seats commences this morning for the Robert Downing engagement, which opens at the theatre on Tuesday evening next for two nights. The gladiatorial which will be played on both evenings has never before been produced here. It deals with the same theme as "The Virgin" but is not that piece under another name. On the contrary it is a new and great piece of dramatic composition by Steele and Mr. Downing looks upon it as being immeasurably superior to any other play based upon the same subject. Though Mr. Downing has never played here, he has been seen by many of our citizens and one can easily see him among the leading attractions now on the stage.

IN THE POLITICAL ARENA.

Harmonious Convention Held by Summit County Democrats.

A VERY STRONG TICKET.

CONGRESSMAN BRYAN CANNOT VISIT UTAH THIS YEAR.

He Sends a Kind Word For Delegate Rawlins—Partial List of Republican Candidates Now in the Field—General Political Notes.

Park City, Oct. 12.—Pursuant to call, the Summit county Democratic convention met at Coalville and was called to order Thursday, Oct. 12, at 1 o'clock p. m., by John Boyden, chairman of the county central committee. James P. Sweeney, of Park City, was made temporary chairman and Alma Smith, of Coalville, temporary secretary. On motion, the chair then appointed committees on credentials, permanent organization and resolutions. A recess of twenty minutes was then taken to allow committees to make out reports. When called to order, the committee on credentials reported fifty-five delegates present and entitled in person or by proxy to seats. The report was adopted. The committee on organization reported R. C. Chambers, of Park City, permanent chairman, and Alma Smith, of Coalville, for permanent secretary; also the general order of business.

The committee on resolutions read their report, which was greeted with frequent bursts of applause. All the reports were adopted. At the proper time Chairman Chambers had taken the gavel, and made brief but appropriate remarks upon the honor conferred upon him, and in a business like manner proceeded to conduct his session.

Nominations for delegates to the constitutional convention being in order, the four following gentlemen were placed before the convention:

Chambers, Park City; Ward E. Pack, Kamas; W. W. Cluff, Coalville; P. H. Tallon, Park City.

On motion the nominations were closed, the rules suspended and all four nominated were declared by acclamation the choice of Summit county. John Boyden was chosen as the candidate for county recorder; F. J. McLaughlin, of Park City, for assessor and collector; George W. Young, of Wanship, county treasurer; Charles E. Street, of Park City, for county attorney; W. F. Smith, of Coalville, for county clerk; Ward E. Pack, Coalville, for county surveyor; Dr. E. Viko, of Park City, for coroner, and for selectmen, E. W. Berry, of Park City; Ralph Maxwell, of Peoa, and William Carruth, of Coalville. The committee was then appointed, which will organize later.

Speeches were made by Messrs. Pack, Cluff, Ferry, Chambers and Tallon, upon being called for by the convention, and were enthusiastically applauded. The convention then adjourned until the next meeting.

W. J. BRYAN'S REPLY.

He Cannot Find Time to Visit Utah This Year.

Following is a letter received from Hon. W. J. Bryan yesterday. It is published because Mr. Bryan desired that his wishes regarding Utah be conveyed to her people:

"Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 8, 1894.

"Hon. John T. Caine, Salt Lake City, Utah.

"My Dear Sir—Expecting an early adjournment of Congress, I talked with Mr. Rawlins, and partially arranged for a trip to your state during the campaign. But Congress continued in session until the campaign was open in Nebraska and I found it necessary to enter at once upon the work here.

Being now the candidate of the party for the Senate, my time is entirely occupied in canvassing the state. For this reason it is absolutely impossible for me to spare the time necessary to visit Utah. I wish you would express to your people my appreciation of their kindness in extending the invitation for me to spare the time necessary to visit Utah. I wish you would express to your people my appreciation of their kindness in extending the invitation for me to spare the time necessary to visit Utah.

"Next year I will be at liberty to come to Utah, when you have your senatorial campaign, and you may promise your people for me that I shall give them what assistance I can at that time. I feel a special interest in the election of Congressman Rawlins, because I have become very much attached to him during the present Congress, and appreciate his democracy, his ability, and his fidelity to the interests of the northwest.

"You can say anything good of him, and I will endorse it. It would be a great misfortune to refuse him, for he is a man of great confidence in the good sense of your people to think for a moment that any success is possible. Wishing you every success in this year's campaign, I am,

"Very truly yours,"

"W. J. BRYAN."
